Obligatio Vexillo

Fidem meam obligo vexillo Civitatum Americae Foederatarum et Rei Publicae, pro qua stat, uni nationi, Deo ducente, non dividendae, cum libertate iustitiaque omnibus.

JCL Creed

We the members of the Junior Classical League, covenant to hand on the torch of classical civilization in the modern world.
We believe an acquaintance with the civilization of Greece and Rome will help us understand and appraise this world of today,
Which is indebted to the ancient civilization in its government and laws, literature, language and arts.
We affirm the JCL experience develops responsibility, fosters brotherhood, promotes enthusiasm, encourages competition,
inspires dedication and enriches our total growth.

JCL Song

Seeking the best, the highest our goal,
Working for greatness through glories of old.
Searching the realms of the golden past,
We follow the Classics' truths that last.
In knowledge, truth, and fellowship, we're growing every day,
The friendly hand of JCL aids in every way.
In Rome's proud steps we're marching on,
With every true colleague.
And forever we'll hold to the Purple and Gold,
Of the Junior Classical League.

Dr. Biagio Santorelli, University of Florida

At School with Ghosts, Pirates, and Tyrants

Since the end of the Republic and for nearly six centuries, the capstone of any young Roman male's education was the school of rhetoric. There, under the tutelage of a professional rhetorician, he spent his teenage years learning how to concoct and deliver fictive speeches on often extravagant subjects. In my speech I will give a hint of the fictional universe of declamation, showing the main practice of school education in Roman imperial age.
