

2006 FJCL State Latin Forum

Derivatives II

I. Choose the response which best answers the question, completes the sentence, or means the same as the underlined word.

1. We received a surreptitious glance.
a. furtive                  b. passing                  c. acknowledging                  d. overt 2. The horse exhibited increasing fractiousness.
a. ability to run quickly                  b. adjustment to a bridle
c. inclination to make trouble                  d. tendency to bone diseases
3. The reporter had a modicum of composure.
a. lack                  b. pretense
c. changing rate                  d. moderate amount 4. The man aspired to a sacerdotal position.
a. noble                  b. priestly                  c. fiduciary                  d. ceremonial 5. From its derivation a sergeant is a _____ of another individual.
a. follower                  b. servant                  c. guard                  d. leader 6. The man was known for his querulous demeanor.
a. complaining                  b. serene                  c. inquisitive                  d. sad 7. The jury listened intently to the witness's pejorative testimony.
a. contradictory                  b. surprising                  c. compelling                  d. derogatory 8. Volitive words express _____.
a. permission                  b. anger                  c. devotion                  d. greed 9. When one senesces, he _____.
a. understands                  b. shows emotion                  c. grows old                  d. weakens

II. Choose the English word which is derived from the given Latin word.

10. nosco
a. nuisance                  b. renown                  c. quaint                  d. innovation
11. muto
a. mute                  b. mutual                  c. mutiny                  d. mutilate
12. focus
a. furnace                  b. force                  c. foment                  d. foyer
13. credo
a. render                  b. crew                  c. grant                  d. decrease

2006 FJCL State Forum – Derivatives II – 2

14. iuovo
a. juncture      b. juvenile      c. jocund      d. joust
15. moneo
a. melee      b. monger      c. monk      d. muster
16. mos
a. mood      b. mother      c. mode      d. mosaic
17. emo
a. remand      b. puissant      c. premium      d. consommé

III. Identify the Latin word from which the given English word is derived.

18. feeble
a. fides      b. fleo      c. flos      d. fluo
19. retreat
a. do      b. traho      c. eo      d. edo
20. surprise
a. prehendo      b. premo      c. pretium      d. prex
21. abridgement
a. brevis      b. rideo      c. ago      d. rigeo
22. strange
a. stringo      b. anguis      c. extra      d. sto 23. meddle
a. memini      b. medius      c. misceo      d. mitto
24. menu
a. nomen      b. nux      c. pauci      d. parvus
25. atone
a. onus      b. unus      c. tendo      d. tono

IV. Choose the meaning of the Latin word from which the given English word is derived.

26. quaestor
a. to seek      b. to stand      c. four      d. daily 27. incoherent
a. to hold      b. yesterday      c. to cling      d. heir 28. adverse
a. true      b. fear      c. to grow      d. to turn

2006 FJCL State Forum – Derivatives II – 3

29. morose
a. death                    b. custom                    c. delay                    d. bite
30. display
a. to fold                    b. to please                    c. to calm                    d. full 31. entire
a. to stretch                    b. to cover                    c. to hold                    d. to touch
32. issue
a. to follow                    b. to be                    c. to buy                    d. to go 33. Noel
a. to know                    b. snow                    c. to be born                    d. to rejoice

V. Choose the word that does NOT belong by derivation.

34. a. difference                    b. reference                    c. interference                    d. conference
35. a. custody                    b. discover                    c. handkerchief                    d. curfew
36. a. fence                    b. defenestrated                    c. defense                    d. fender
37. a. subsection                    b. intrinsic                    c. pursuit                    d. execute
38. a. juggle                    b. jeopardy                    c. jewelry                    d. joy
39. a. nuisance                    b. noisome                    c. innocent                    d. obnoxious
40. a. essay                    b. prodigal                    c. malign                    d. action
41. a. criminal                    b. increment                    c. secretion                    d. concert
42. a. fault                    b. fallacious                    c. fallow                    d. faucet

VI. Choose the word which comes from the SAME LATIN ROOT as the given word.

43. mountain
a. promontory                    b. admonition                    c. amount                    d. monumental 44. jurisprudence
a. clairvoyant                    b. vigilance                    c. propriety                    d. rendezvous 45. colleague
a. alliance                    b. sacrilege                    c. negligence                    d. privilege
46. cruise
a. recruit                    b. accrue                    c. encrusted                    d. crusade

2006 FJCL State Forum – Derivatives II – 4

47. covet

- a. concupiscence      b. covenant      c. discover      d. covey

48. poise

- a. composition      b. expensive      c. pedigree      d. peace

49. praise

- a. surge      b. surprise      c. precious      d. precarious

50. rein

- a. direct      b. compulsive      c. prohibit      d. affirm